Council in row over right of way

A ROW has erupted between Honiton Town Council and the owners of the Dowell Street Auction Rooms after a right of way passage was blocked off.

The walkway has been in dispute for several years and the blockage – wooden planters (pictured) – was discovered last week when staff at Hospiscare turned up for work and found their usual path from the Beehive car park down to the shop cut off.

Following an outcry from the public, Honiton Town Council released a statement addressing the situation.

A spokesperson for Honiton Town Council said: "There had been an extensive amount of damage that had been caused by the constant misuse of people attempting to get down the very steep and often slippery slope. The town council were extremely concerned for the safety of these people and that one day someone was going to be seriously hurt unless some actions were taken. The Auction House including the Warehouse has its own access point from the road to the side of the building and there is no need for anyone to attempt to walk or drive over the very steep slope. I attach a photograph for your information."

The Dowell Street Auction Rooms, which are next door to the Beehive (Honiton Town Council's offices), currently have two tenants leasing the space, Whittons Auctioneers and Hospiscare.

The statement continued: "The town council has been involved in this legal case involving access rights which has been discussed in several council meetings. This has been an issue dating as far back as early 2014, one which the town council tried to resolve by offering a formal license arrangement to the freeholder property owners of the Auction House next door to the Beehive. This was refused resulting in the property owners taking out legal action against the council. The town council was concerned for the safety of local people using the steep slope between the two properties and as a public authority priority must ensure that proper arrangements are in place and adhered to at all times. During the legal process the town council tried once again to put in a formal arrangement. This was again refused but then shortly afterwards the property owners withdrew their legal proceedings. At this point the town council wrote to the property owners asking that they remove their gate and stop using this as an access point to the back of their building otherwise the town council will have no choice but to take further action. We understand this was all before Hospiscare took on their tenancy."

The council were also quick to deny that the 'barriers' were put in under cloak and dagger but in fact were installed when councillors were available to do it.

The council spokesperson added: "We are keen to support Hospiscare as much as possible and will be more than pleased to consider providing a license arrangement to Hospiscare directly. If mutually agreed this arrangement would be managed properly with proper safety notices and insurance in place."

Helen and Michael Matthews, the joint freehold owners of the Dowell Street auction rooms, said the council is hiding behind 'safety' as an excuse to block the entrance.

Mr Matthews said: "We feel that Honiton Town Council is unnecessarily using Health and Safety as a reason to block an existing right of way, knowing it affects the tenants – Hospiscare – the most, and place us as landlords under the most pressure to give up a right we have personally used for some 32 years. How can the council hide behind 'safety' as an excuse to block our entrance when the council's own actions have made it more dangerous and caused loss of business to Hospiscare."

Mrs Matthews added: "The reason the slope is now there is because when the Beehive was built the builders raised the level of the Dowell Street car park by almost a meter in height in this particular corner, making the entrance more difficult to use. To alleviate the existing problem, the entrance should be reduced to its former level."

Mr and Mrs Matthews said they were not surprised that there is public outrage over what has taken place.

The couple added: "We would like to know why this barrier was erected by the council on a Sunday afternoon but neither Hospiscare or Whittons Auctioneers knew anything about the council's actions?"

Boy, 12, 'banned from town' after man hurt at college

A 12-YEAR-OLD boy is said to have been banned from entering Axminster after causing havoc at Axe Valley Community College.

One man was taken to hospital with leg and arm injuries on Tuesday last week, and police have confirmed that allegations of assault and criminal damage are being investigated.

The boy is not enrolled at the college, but police have been called there twice.

Following the most recent incident, on Tuesday, September 13th, headteacher Steve Green wrote to parents to say that the boy has been banned from entering Axminster as part of bail conditions.

A spokesperson for the ambulance service said it was called at 12.48pm and that a man in his 40s was taken to hospital in Exeter with leg and arm injuries.

It is understood that the man is not a college staff member.

Council in row over right of way

A ROW has erupted between Honiton Town Council and the owners of the Dowell Street Auction Rooms after a right of way passage was blocked off.

The walkway has been in dispute for several years and the blockage – wooden planters – was discovered last week when staff at Hospiscare turned up for work and found their usual path from the Beehive car park down to the shop cut off.

From the editor's chair Miscreants fail to ruin the carnival

CARNIVALS are fun events. People turn out in their thousands to watch the spectacle, enjoy a beer of two perhaps and buy an over-priced hot-dog from the street vendors. It's part of our social culture in this part of the world and they are great family occasions.

When so many people crowd into a town like Axminster there's always going to be a few idiots who make a fool of themselves, youngsters showing off to their mates by drinking too much, embarrassing their parents.

Sometimes they square up to each other but it rarely turns nasty.

This newspaper has been criticised heavily in the past when we have highlighted such behaviour and no doubt we will get a similar reaction when our carnival report is read this week.

There have been a few postings on social media that the behaviour of some ruined the evening for many. Police have confirmed that one group did cause a great deal of trouble and arrests followed.

We have spoken to a number who are closely connected with the carnival and whilst they deplored any bad behaviour they did not feel it ruined the enjoyment of the occasion for the majority. True, there was a great deal of mess, including lots of broken glass, left around the streets but the organisers have praised Street Scene for clearing up the mess so quickly and thoroughly.

It would be a shame if Saturday's Axminster Carnival procession was marred by incidents of anti-social behaviour, especially as the organisers believe it was one of the best carnivals in recent years, attracting a bigger than usual crowd.

They are not easy events for the police to control and monitor. They want the spectators to enjoy the occasion but have to come down hard on those who don't behave.

Police have admitted disorder was limited to a particular group and there were a number of arrests for criminal damage and one officer was assaulted.

However, in a statement to this newspaper they stressed that the carnival was "fantastic, enjoyable and a credit to the organisers" and that those who misbehaved were being "dealt with".

OTTERY ST MARY Fight back on to save Ottery hospital

THE fight to save Ottery St Mary Hospital has been re-ignited following reports that a raft of cuts, including bed closures at district and community hospitals, could be in place by April 2017.

The BBC reported on the bed closures last week following the leaking of a document concerning the strategy for Devon's health service.

The Sustainability & Transformation Plan (STP), lays out that, if nothing were to change, by 2021 the health services alone in Devon are likely to be £572m in deficit.

The STP suggests that around 400 acute hospital beds (one in six) across Devon could be cut, as well as almost 200 community hospital beds.

SEATON New homes would slash 'green wedge'

PROPOSED affordable housing in a Beer Neighbourhood Plan consultation document has got Seaton town councillors worried.

Should the proposal become reality it will effectively reduce the rural area – or 'green wedge' – between Beer and Seaton by 50 per cent, they say.

The site in question is a piece of land off New Road to the east of White Cliff.

Seaton Town Council Planning Committee chairman Martin Shaw wrote: "We cannot accept that the land off New Road constitutes an acceptable site for development, even of affordable housing."

"...Seaton will do all it can to block it."

SIDMOUTH Port Royal set for regeneration

A DILAPIDATED area on Sidmouth's seafront is set for regeneration after East Devon District Council's Cabinet, in partnership with Sidmouth Town Council, agreed to start a Scoping Study into Port Royal.

Sidmouth Town Council has already recently approved the detail of a Scoping Study.

A Scoping Study's purpose is simply to set out the options which are potentially viable for an area such as Port Royal. Consultation, communication and engagement with the local community will feature for every stage of the project.

Port Royal has been a hot topic in Sidmouth for a long time and earlier this year a local architecture firm privately ran an international competition to design what the regeneration of the area should look like. Members of the public voted, with most of the feedback agreeing a community space was needed.

SOUTH SOMERSET

New efficient street lighting will pay for itself in seven years

A MASSIVE £3.6 million, six-month programme to replace 18,000-plus street lights across Somerset will start this month.

Somerset County Council will replace around one third of its street lights with greener, more efficient and 'Dark Sky' approved (to help reduce light pollution) LED technology.

As each new light will use around 53 per cent less energy, the initial capital investment of £3.6 million should be paid back in less than seven years.

Somerset County Council already has a policy of replacing expired or damaged street lights with LEDs and there are currently around 6,500 across Somerset.

This latest contract will see a further 18,148 lamps replaced between September and March 2017 at locations all across the county where the existing street light columns are suitable for upgrading to LEDs.

Clare Melbourne resigns from the town council

CLARE Melbourne has resigned from Honiton Town Council with immediate effect, citing pressures of work as the reason.

Cllr Melbourne had special responsibilities regarding open spaces in Honiton and has been heavily involved in the search for new sport pitches in the town.

Mayor of Honiton, Cllr Caroline Kolek, said: "As chair of council I am disappointed to lose Cllr Melbourne.

"She was a very pro-active councillor who brought a huge amount of knowledge around HR issues and was very keen in developing our work around open spaces for the town.

"We respect her decision to resign to pressures of work and career development.

"She will be greatly missed and had a big impact on our work. We thank her for the work that she did.

"I am hoping that we will recruit another younger member of our community in joining our council.

"It is important to have younger people on the council who bring fresh ideas and who will be a part of Honiton's development as a community for years to come."

HONITON volunteers were awarded at a special ceremony recently for their years of dedication to the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal.

The fundraisers ranged from five to an incredible 40 years of service.

Tesco was also awarded for their consistent support. The Honiton branch of the supermarket raises around £2,000 for the appeal every year.

Chris Sinden, Poppy co-ordinator and president of the RBL in Honiton, said: "Selling poppies is a very satisfying job, where one meets the general public often for a chat and an exchange of views and is at times very entertaining and sometimes enlightening."

Those receiving awards for their service were: for five years - Kay Mitchell; ten years

- Rosemary Mapleston, Steve Parsons, Paul Biddle, Sheila Denny, Laurie Denny and Dave Rickard; 15 years - William Busby; 30 years - Pam Lane, Dave Lewis and Rosemary Sprigg; 35 years - Tish Tuke; and 40 years - Janet Real.

Following the awards ceremony at Honiton Museum, Tesco provided cream teas and refreshments.

Pictured above are the fundraising champions who have given years of service to the appeal.

Art society holds exhibition

HONITON Art Society staged another successful exhibition recently, with awards presented to the artists responsible for the best pieces.

Alongside them is Honiton mayor Cllr Caroline Kolek, judge Phil Creek and chairman of the society Barrie Raby.

Not pictured is Claudia Napier, who picked up the 3D award for her bronze sculpture 'Plop!'

The Chairman's Choice this year was a water-colour by Sally Boom entitled 'Beetroot'.

Lions fundraisers planned for October

HONITON Lions have announced two forthcoming fundraising events.

Firstly, on Thursday, October 13th, the Lions Ladies will be holding their annual 'Pamper Evening' raising vital funds for Hospiscare and FORCE Cancer Charity. The event will be held at St Rita's Centre on Ottery Moor

Lane. There will be plenty of offer; treatments are £5 each including pedicure and manicure, and there will be a range of stands with complete jewellery and other goods.

Tickets are available from Livingstone's Jewellers on High Street or on the door on the evening.

On Saturday, October 15th the Budleigh Salterton Male Voice Choir and Lymstone Military Wives Choir will be performing at St Paul's Church to help raise funds towards the club's charity donations. Tickets are £7 each and are available at Fulfords Estate Agency or one the door on the evening.

■ DAVE Green has been described as lucky after surviving being crushed by a dumper truck driven by his brother Danny

Sidmouth man lucky to be alive after being crushed by truck

A MAN has miraculously survived being crushed by a three-tonne dumper truck – driven by his brother.

Dave Green, 25, became trapped under the vehicle when it tipped over and landed on him after it skidded on gravel.

Paramedics, firefighters and the police all scrambled to save his life by battling to remove the huge truck before he was flown to hospital.

The plumber from Sidmouth suffered a crushed pelvis, 10 broken ribs, a fractured shoulder, broken tailbone, lost one-and-a-half fingers and damaged his bladder.

He was not expected to survive, but although he said that he was "still in a lot of pain" and is having surgery next week, he has confounded medical staff with his recovery.

Speaking from his hospital bed he said: "I'm not in the best place as I am still in hospital in a lot of pain and will be here for another six to eight weeks."

But his brother Danny, 24, who was operating the vehicle said they were just thankful he was still alive.

He said: "It's probably the worst thing I have ever witnessed."

The pair had both been working together on a job in Branscombe when the accident happened on September 8th.

Danny had pulled over to let a car pass but as their roofless vehicle pulled away it skidded and clipped a bank – sending Danny flying and Dave to the ground.

The truck went up the bank and then came crashing down on Dave.

"It all happened so fast," said Danny, who works as a bricklayer.

"We tried to straighten the dumper back up, but it went into the bank on the other side of the road and threw me off through the air.

"Dave managed to jump off but, as he jumped, the dumper went up the bank and came down on him."

Fire crews battled to free Dave and he was flown to Derriford

Hospital in Plymouth.

His family were told that his condition was "critical and life-threatening" but he has since managed to pull through.

Danny added: "The nurses said they did not know how he made it.

"The emergency services were very quick, but it felt like forever – he was in so much pain."

Now, Dave is recovering in hospital and out of intensive care.

He is awaiting his pelvis operation next Thursday and could be in hospital for another seven weeks.

Danny added: "We are thankful he is here."

Volunteers' autumn season of 'Tool Box' training begins

EAST Devon Volunteer Support Agency (EDVSA) has started its autumn programme of a concept known as Tool Box Training Sessions.

The programme offers low-cost training sessions – most just a couple of hours long – on important aspects of working in the sector as a staff member or volunteer.

A spokesperson said: "The sessions will provide expert advice to help funding bids stand out.

"This can be achieved by having a robust business plan, learning top fundraising tips and identifying project outcomes."

The first session, called 'Developing A Robust Business Plan', will be held on September 22nd, followed by Top Ten Fundraising Tips on October 27th.

Sharon's slimming success celebrated

LOCAL weight loss expert, Sharon Grove, is celebrating after being recognised for the exceptional work she does to support people in East & Mid Devon and South Somerset to achieve their dream weight.

She was one of around 100 high-achieving Team Developers invited to Slimming World's 'Team Developer Thank You Day' at the organisation's head office in Alfreton, Derbyshire.

Sharon is a consultant for the Honiton Slimming World groups and also one of the UK's leading Team Developers, meaning that as well as managing her own group as a self-employed franchisee, she is doing a great job of managing other consultants in the area to ensure excellent service right across the area.

As part of the day, Sharon, who graduated from the Slimming World Academy in 2004, was invited to discuss best practice and share her tips on delivering a first-class weight management service to ensure fantastic weight losses and members' success.

She also shared ideas for building and managing successful local teams. In the afternoon the guests were invited to take part in a workshop, hosted by Slimming World's Director of Field Operations, Lisa Salmon, and were treated to a healthy banquet in a pop-up marquee.

Sharon says: "It was an honour to be invited to the special day at Slimming World. The day itself was just so inspirational from start to finish.

"To have had the opportunity to meet and share ideas with other top-performing weight loss experts and managers was great.

"I left the day absolutely brimming with tips and ideas, and there's no doubt the insight will enable me to improve the support I give to other consultants in the area, so that anyone who attends Slimming World in Honiton, including the members who attend my group each week, get the very best possible service and support to achieve their weight loss dreams.

"I know what it's like to struggle with your weight, and having lost 5st as a Slimming World member myself, I also understand what a huge difference the right kind of support can make to your chances of achieving long-term success.

"There are so many fad diets around, so being able to tell people that they can lose weight without going hungry and while enjoying everyday foods - like pasta, rice, potatoes, fruit and vegetables, lean meat, poultry and fish, and they can find new ways to get active that don't have to involve going to the gym or taking part in team sports, is a great feeling."

"I feel so passionate about helping people to change their lives by learning new healthy habits, and to be able to keep excess weight off for life.

"Having the chance to get together with other high-achieving consultants from across the country to share ideas and experiences is yet another example of the superb support that we get as Slimming World franchisees.

"My job is flexible and rewarding, and although I'm self-employed I feel wholly supported.

"I'm so proud to be part of Slimming World - the UK's favourite weight loss company!"

Our groups in Honiton are held every Tuesday at 3.30pm, 5.30pm and 7.30pm at Honiton Family Church.

Either pop along or give Sharon a call on 07963 337178 (if you prefer quieter sessions then please call in at 3.30pm or 7.30pm on Tuesday).

Charities' chance for slice of council funds

CHARITY representatives in East Devon have the chance to take part in a unique bidding process for funds in front of a panel of 'dragons' next month.

The event, which will be held at the Beehive in Honiton on Wednesday, October 26th, is an opportunity for groups to pitch their ideas for funding - based loosely on the format of the hit BBC programme. Submissions need to be made by October 2nd.

Charities that are invited to the event will have to answer questions from the panel, demonstrating how their projects will benefit people in the area.

The event is being organised by Honiton Together, a collaborative community development programme run by a partnership consisting of East Devon District Council, Devon County Council, East Devon Volunteer Support Agency and Honiton Town Council.

The judging panel will consist of Devon county councillor Sara Randall-Johnson, Honiton town councillor Ann Mountjoy and Jamie Buckley, from East Devon District Council. Last year, eight groups received funding at the event, including Honiton Youth Club, Axe Valley Visiting Scheme, and HALFF (Health and Local Food for Families).

Devon county councillors Paul Diviani and Sara Randall-Johnson have used some of their council locality budget to contribute to the funding.

Cllr Sara Randall-Johnson, county councillor for Honiton St Michael's, said: "This event has proven to be extremely valuable for charitable organisations in the area over the past couple of years, and it's a great way for them to raise their profile locally."

Councillor Paul Diviani, East Devon District Council leader and Devon county councillor for Honiton St Paul's, said: "I'm pleased to be supporting the event again this year.

"You can see the hard work that the charities put into their projects and this event is a great opportunity to hear about their work and how they will use the funds."

The Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, added: "The town council were keen to ensure the work put in by Honiton Together continued by not only taking part but providing funds to this very worthy initiative.

"The Dragons' Den event has not only financially supported many local and worthwhile charitable projects but it has also given local organisations the platform on which to raise their profiles and an opportunity to learn through sharing and networking."

Carnival season under way

WITH carnival season well under way and Honiton's own fast approaching, the carnival organising committee have scheduled several events to get everybody in the right mood and raise some vital funds.

Kicking off the celebrations will be a food and craft fayre at Mackarness Hall from 9am to 12.30pm on Saturday, October 8th. The event will also see the crowning of the carnival royalty at 11am.

If you'd like to sell at the fayre, tables are £5 each and can be booked by ringing 07951438598.

Also on the day there will be cake competition. Judges will be looking for the best decorated efforts with judging taking place at noon; it's 50p for a child to enter and £1 for an adult.

Following that, there will be a quiz night on October 16th at the Beehive and a bingo evening on October 19th at The Mackarness Hall (eyes down at 8pm), before the carnival itself takes place on Saturday, October 22nd at 7.30pm.

The organising committee have also announced that the ever popular Christmas Carnival this year will take place on December 3rd at 5.30pm.

Mayor opens newly expanded shop

THE Mayor of Honiton, Cllr Caroline Kolek, officially opened the expanded Lace Lingerie shop in Black Lions Court last week.

Cllr Kolek praised the independent shop for expanding, saying: "There has been a lot of coverage recently about the need for independent businesses in Honiton, so it's great to see Lace Lingerie expanding. Independent shops are what make Honiton."

Lace Lingerie has been trading for nearly two years and owners Deborah and Philip Hunter have worked hard to establish a much needed lingerie shop to serve the East

Devon area and further afield.

Deborah said: "We were outgrowing our current shop unit and when the opportunity to expand into the next unit became available we decided to go for it."

"By expanding we are able to offer our customers more products and ranges."

"We now offer a range of men's underwear and nightwear, a small range of swimwear and also specialist mastectomy and nursing bras."

"New ranges include Fantasy, Fraya and Jockey and we are looking to introduce Prima Donna in the near future."

"Scarves and a range of jewellery will also be available soon.

"If you are looking for underwear, please call in you will receive a warm welcome and all the help and advice you need to be able to purchase the right product for you."

"You will be amazed at what the right fitting bra can do for your posture and shape."

A fitting event will be taking place on Friday, September 30th.

It is advisable to book early to take advantage of specials deals being offered for this event.

Call 01404 42689 for your appointment.

■ Cllr Kolek officially opened the Lace Lingerie extension, praising the independent business in these tough times. Deborah (second right) was joined by supporters at a special event held at the shop and the Zest Café

Conservation group making plans for autumn at the Glen HONITON Glen Conservation Group have been busy making sure the area is ready for its autumn visitors.

Wendy Graham, a member of the group said: "We have cut back most of the laurel along the path from the kissing gate so that visitors can now see as well as hear the stream down below."

"The new pink astilbes planted down by the water's edge and the hellebores planted alongside the path have performed very well this year and we look forward to an even better display next year when they have settled in."

"The grey squirrels are feasting on the ripening berries and swelling nuts as the green leaves begin to change to their autumn colours."

"Soon there will be a blaze of reds and oranges throughout the Glen and after the leaves have fallen the branches will be stark and bare. We will do our best to keep the paths and waterways clear but would love more help."

"We are a friendly group who meet in the Glen at 10am on Tuesday mornings and work until noon or until energy runs out. Care to join us? No special skills are needed."

All aboard the Seaton Pearl

IT STAYED dry for Seaton Carnival children's fancy dress pirate parade.

Over 60 children all dressed as pirates gathered under the Jolly Roger in Windsor Gardens singing pirate songs and learning to speak and walk like a pirate before setting off on the parade around town. Captain Barracuda (Janine Barradale) led the pirate band as they stopped off at shops and businesses displaying the pirate cross, demanding booty and treasure.

The pirates finally made their way over to Treasure Island (Tesco) where even more booty was handed over.

Finally they gathered at the Seaton Tramway Terminus for a ride on the famous Seaton Pearl, one of the tramway's single decker trams specially decorated for the occasion.

■ SEATON Carnival Children's fancy dress party took place in the town hall, which was filled to capacity with kids and their parents for two hours of fun. With a disco and a full size bouncy castle, there was plenty to do. Halfway through the children were treated to a selection of juicy snacks and drinks before prizes for the best dressed fancy dress, judged by Tina Aedo and Dee Byrne Jones, were awarded

■ TERRY Hartnell, Simon Bowditch and Dan Butt at Seaton Carnival's shore angling event

THIRTY-four anglers took part in the carnival shore angling event, which was run by Mike Spiller and Honiton Sea Angling Club.

Fish caught in the four hour match included mullet, bass, dogfish, pollack, garfish, mackerel, scad, pout, smooth-hound, gurnard, plaice, wrasse and bullhuss.

The winner would be who could catch the best two fish of different species of fish.

In first place was Simon Bowditch who weighed in a scad and garfish for 135 per cent. Second was Terry Hartnell who recorded a mullet and bass for 128 per cent. Third spot was Dan Butt with a doggie and pouting.

The prize for the best single fish was Dave Shore from Bristol who had a mullet of 3lb 15.5oz.

'Cooking for One' course on the boil for this autumn

HEALTH and Local Food for Families (HALFF) is to start 'Cooking for One' workshops in Seaton thanks to funding from another local charity, Eating with Dignity.

A cheque for £1,860 has been presented to kickstart the project, which welcomes people from across East Devon.

The aim is to support people living alone with simple, healthy cookery demonstrations and regular newsletters emailed for free.

HALFF's Laura O'Rourke said: "Are you in a rut cooking the same old recipes? Is this because you live alone? Do you reach for the 'meals for one' at the supermarket rather than cook something fresh at home?"

Participants will be given time-saving hints and tips to make cooking for one more enjoyable – plus a wider understanding about what they eat, food labelling, food preparation and budgeting.

The workshops will include advice for Type 2 diabetes, heart disease, high blood pressure and modified diets (e.g. puree / fork-mashable).

Seaton-based GP and trustee for Eating with Dignity, Dr Joe Kent, said: "Eating with Dignity are grateful to HALFF for including those on modified diets; it's a challenge and requires culinary creativity to produce nutritional, tasty and appealing food for those who struggle to swallow safely.

"We hope this is just the beginning and that awareness and education of 'dysphagia' (difficulty in swallowing) is recognised and supported in cafes / restaurants.

Anyone interested in supporting those with dysphagia are welcome to contact us on info@eating-with-dignity.org

The first cooking demonstration will be on Tuesday, September 27th between 11am and 12.30pm.

There is no need to book but organisers would like to be informed in advance so they may estimate how many to cater for.

Future dates are October 25th, November 22nd, December 20th.

To find out more, contact laura@halff.org.uk, call on 01297 631782 or go to the web for more details www.halff.org.uk.

Town crier seeks escort

SEATON town crier David Craner is on the lookout for an escort.

The escort's role is to accompany and walk arm-in-arm with the town crier at competitions, but they don't have to say or 'cry' anything.

Mr Craner used to be escorted by his wife, but has been without accompaniment since they went different ways a year ago.

He has been on the circuit for more than 10 years and attends competitions each year, representing Seaton when competing in Devon, Crewkerne in Somerset and Beaminster in Dorset.

Mr Craner said: "I attend about 12 competitions a year, but would be keen for the escort to come out [on assignments] in the towns as well."

The regalia will be provided and Mr Craner described the escort's role as "a fun thing to do whilst keeping tradition alive".

He added: "You get to see different places with some fantastic and friendly people."

About the year so far in terms of competition, he said: "I haven't had too many results, but I did win the South of England Championship in Blandford Forum."

The ideal escort would be friendly, have a sense of humour and, possibly, an interest in English tradition.

Anyone wishing to register an interest or find out more can contact Mr Craner on 01297 560840, 07875 925965 or davidcraner@btinternet.com

Mother and daughter to take on night marathon

■ Charlotte and Glynis have got a challenge ahead of them

A CANCER survivor from Axminster is set to walk a nighttime marathon with her daughter in aid of charity.

Glynis George and her daughter, Charlotte Powell, will be on the starting line for Shine Night Walk in London on September 24th.

Glynis, who runs her own business in Axminster, was diagnosed with breast cancer two years ago.

Charlotte, who grew up in Axminster but now works for the mounted branch of the Metropolitan Police, recalls: "I instantly felt sick, I was sure I was going to lose my mum to this hideous disease."

But treatment at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital worked, and Glynis is now free from cancer.

Talking about RD&E and its staff, she said: "They were absolutely marvelous."

Charlotte asked: "So what do most 67-year-old cancer survivors decide to do? Walk a Marathon through the night to raise funds for Cancer Research UK, of course!"

"Cancer has touched us all in one way or another. Dig deep please."

Supermarket's fundraiser raises more than £350 for lifeboat charity

A WEEKEND of fundraising at Tesco's Axminster store resulted in donations of £358.75 for the RNLI.

The weekend was organised by the supermarket's Community Champion Rob Cope.

RNLI organisers were very grateful, and a spokesperson said: "A total of 27 Tesco stores, mainly throughout Somerset and Devon, took part in the weekend and the combined donations are expected to total more than £10,000."

Man seriously injured in A35 crash

A MAN was taken to hospital with serious injuries after a car and a lorry collided on the A35 between Shute and Taunton Cross, near Axminster.

The accident happened on Tuesday, September 13th, and a police spokesperson gave the precise location of the accident as Smiter's Pit Lane.

Speaking shortly after the incident, he said: "The lorry driver has no injuries but the occupant of the car has serious injuries."

"Road closures were put on at Copper Castle and Taunton Cross."

Emergency services were called at 2.20pm, and a spokesperson for the ambulance service said that one male suffered head and leg injuries. The air ambulance was summoned, but it was decided to take the man to hospital in Exeter by road ambulance.

Diversions were put in place by police.

Floral demonstration opens new season

COLYFORD & DISTRICT FLOWER CLUB: The season of meetings started on September 6th at Colyford Hall with a demonstration by Joan Trewin of Bude.

Joan started with a large oval basket of willow, which she had made herself after attending a course. She filled the basket with an array of colour using Japanese lanterns, orange germinis, dahlias and roses, yellow alstromeria, pink asters and cotoneaster berries, finished off with threaded fruit hanging from the handle, all very bright and colourful.

Joan followed on by using a circular wire structure, also self-made, to which she attached three small boxes made of oasis and covered with small hosta leaves, and with purple heather, silver anthuriums, sprigs of bougainvillea, purple lisianthus and pink snowberries.

After that Joan created an arrangement in what started off as a cereal box, but once again she had covered the box in texture and made it waterproof, and used hydrangea heads, large red amaryllis and a group of red roses. To finish she turned one of the amaryllis upside down, put it on to the side, added water to the open stem and placed a red rose in the top. Very different but effective.

The demonstration finished with the title 'Sailing away on an Autumn Holiday' – an autumn sunset, using many colours, again making a wonderful display. Homemade sails made from dawning, parchment paper and glue looked very realistic. Large aspidistra leaves curled and attached to the side covered the base, white anthuriums and white gerberas depicted the sea very well and a white brassica stuck into the centre completed the scene.

A vote of thanks was given by Ann Hebdon.

Competition results were: Intermediate – Carol Hubbard. Advanced: 1 Sheila Clare, 2 Angie Clark, 3 Lindi Richards.

The next meeting is October 4th in Colyford Hall, 2.15pm, the title will be 'Floral Yarns' by Alison Penno from Launceston. The title sounds intriguing so why not come along and join the members for an afternoon of flowers. For anyone wishing to enter the competition for fun, the title is 'A Woolly Container', so use your imagination.

Talk on animal sanctuary at Axe Valley Centre

MEMBERS of The National Trust's Axe Valley Centre was given an illustrated talk by Maggie Bradshaw of Ferne Animal Sanctuary on September 14th.

Those in attendance were told about the different aspects of the work and the different types of animals they looked after from chipmunks to horses, goats and cattle.

Maggie also explained the history of the sanctuary dating back to the Second World War and how they still find dogs and cats tied to their gates.

At the moment they are in the process of building new units and a visitor centre with a legacy from a grateful lady who they helped some time ago.

The centre's next talk will be on October 12th and will be given by Captain Hugh May RN and is titled 'Billy Down's Wartime Secret – A Local WWII Mystery'.

This take place at Colyford Memorial Hall, from 2.30pm. Entry is £2 each for non-members.

■ THE President of Seaton Rotary Club, Gareth Davies, inducted the first corporate members into the club on Monday, September 5th at The White Hart, Colyton.

The VO was given by Patsy Kingdom.

There was a lot of business. Subscriptions will rise to £39. As usual the plight of Denman was raised and it was agreed to send the raffle takings. Arrangements were made for the Harvest Supper next month. Beer quiz is on November 10th, at the Dolphin, 7pm-7.30pm. Maddy is having a Macmillan cancer morning on Friday, September 30th at WVH, 10am-12noon. Next meeting Harvest Supper, 7pm WVH, October 11th.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Axminster Medical Practice

St Thomas Court, Church Street, Axminster, EX13 5AG
Tel: 01297 32126

THE DOCTORS at Axminster Medical Practice are concerned about the potential low uptake of influenza vaccine this year. The uptake of vaccine last year was one of our poorest on record and this is in line with the national picture. There were reports in the lay press that the vaccine did not provide adequate cover for circulating strains of flu virus in 2014/2015 and it is the case that the match was less good than most years although a number of important strains were covered. When the virus mutates after the vaccine has been prepared it is impossible to change it, but given that important strains are still covered it is vital that the uptake is high to maintain as much protection as possible. Public Health England recommended that people in all the usual risk groups be vaccinated to prevent unnecessary deaths. The uptake in the aged 65 and over group last year was 71% which is lower than the World Health Organisation target of 75%. The uptake in those who are 65 and under but in particular high risk categories because of pre-existing medical conditions was only 45 % and this is particularly worrying since these people might be more severely affected were they to contract the virus. The vaccine works well to protect people from the prominent strains of flu and the difficulty with low uptake is that the immunity within the community at large (known as the 'herd immunity') falls and infection becomes more likely in both high and low risk groups of people. Whilst the illness in a low risk group is less likely to be severe with serious or life threatening complications it remains unpleasant and is likely to entail time off work. The lower the level of virus circulating as a result of vaccination, the lower the chance of all groups being infected.

The doctors at Axminster Medical Practice all have the flu vaccine themselves and urge those patients in all eligible groups to consider doing the same thing.

Constant reorganisation of health system – at what cost?

■ WE hear yet again the 'need' for reorganising the NHS to 'save' money. Rubbish! We have had endless reorganisations at a huge cost. I believe that it's largely reorganisation that has cost so much.

What was wrong with Foundation Trusts that only needed improvement as new ideas evolved? Countless community hospitals were built to help solve the large hospitals' problems of 'bedblocking', for rehabilitation, convalescing, clinics, minor ops; great ideas now being questioned and we are faced with threats of closure etc. How wasteful can you get? We are so grateful we're so lucky here in Seaton where there has been huge voluntary support. Axminster is not so lucky.

Much unnecessary cost is down to overmanagement, top-heavy administration which is not needed. The whole system is now sclerotic with too many overpaid managers with little knowledge of medicine, who seem to be bent on perpetuating their own jobs while treading on the views and needs of local people.

Has anyone costed this constant reorganisation? Including a proliferation of meetings, eg from Seaton to Barnstaple, travel expenses, overtime, bonuses, booking town halls for public consultation (usually after they've actually made decisions) and pointless distribution of handouts, eg are we satisfied, very satisfied or extremely satisfied (accompanied by new jargon to dazzle us. Have you noticed how every patient receives a care package? Now they are set on appropriate pathways!) We get no feedback from such questionnaires but perhaps this is just as well! Managers seem to have endless meetings to discuss previous meetings.

Precious time our GPs would like to treat patients rather than ticking boxes and keeping targets is wasted.

May I give a simple example, fortunately not life-threatening? My husband, aged 90, has a large sebaceous cyst. A check-up at the Seaton League of Friends Fayre on July 2nd, by a local dermatologist, advised an appointment with the local GP. Advice taken; GP advised an operation to remove the cysts. My husband has had previous such cysts which were dealt with by a simple operation a few days after diagnosis, at the local surgery. But no: we have been reorganised. He received a letter from a group in Newton Abbot to book a hospital of his choice. He phoned as requested. Choice easy, Seaton Hospital. Ah, no, not available. But there are vacancies in Newton Abbot or Torquay. He demurred. Er – Axminster then (that's better), but not until mid-October! OK. But is it OK?

Aren't our GPs allowed to practice their own skills? Please, please stop this gross overmanagement by people not qualified to deal with the medical needs of the public. Why should my husband have to ring Newton Abbot or even be expected to get there when his own surgery is an easy walk away?

But a big thank-you to all the doctors, nurses and care staff who serve us so well in Seaton.

JANET LANG,
Seaton

Saving our NHS

■ FOR many months my friends and I worked hard to try to save the modern, well-situated and efficient Ottery Hospital and its minor injuries unit. Despite all the reasons for keeping it open, especially as the population of Ottery will soon expand by a quarter, it seems we have failed. Consequently, bed-blocking at Wonford will continue as new patients will be denied beds and local people will be denied local treatment.

We have seen no reliable financial statistics on the costs of the closure, the provision of alternative care or of its so-called conversion into a hub. If other local experience is a guide, this means that the hospital could be idle for months. Many local people believe that the decision to close Ottery was taken some time ago and that current protestations, that it is to improve efficiency and to provide care in the community, are but rationalisations to save money and to push the NHS into the private sector.

If the UK was at war, would we withdraw at any stage on the grounds that we had spent the budget? The duty of the government now is to increase NHS spending dramatically to save lives, as it would try to do in war. We all know that government waste is huge and that more money should be collected from those who seek to avoid or evade tax. Action is required now as every day that passes is a day nearer the end of the NHS as we know it.

■ PEGASUSLife's design

Reject retirement complex plan

■ I HAVE emailed the Chief Planning Officer at East Devon District Council urging him, for the following reasons, either to recommend refusal of the PegasusLife application to build a giant retirement complex at Knowle Park, Sidmouth, or to call for the applicant to re-submit with major changes:

Firstly, recently uploaded documents show that PegasusLife have ignored his and the public's concerns about the close proximity to a listed building of two massive 60-foot high apartment blocks on the park lawns and also about the massing, scale and bulk of the development in relation to the public park and to nearby residential properties.

Secondly, new photomontages from the applicant show that the Design Review Panel's report (submitted earlier but upon which EDDC is minded to justify approval) is based on false artistic impressions. The attached photo, for instance, taken from page 26 of PegasusLife's new Design Access Statement (document 2391416), shows the height of the proposed buildings on Knowle Drive to be roughly twice that suggested in the artist's impression.

West of England Laser Centre

Twas the Knife before Christmas

IF you are considering eyelid surgery to remove excess skin or fat and freshen and rejuvenate your appearance ready for the New Year then the Christmas period offers excellent recovery and 'hideaway' time ready for a fresher, younger (yet still natural) appearance.

Excess skin and fat is surgically removed, usually from the outside, using natural skin creases, leaving no visible scar. This can be combined with laser skin resurfacing, or injection treatments, to remove facial lines.

Surgery is performed at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital by a Consultant Oculoplastic Surgeon, who specialises in plastic surgery around the eyes and who also holds an NHS Consultant post. In addition the Consultant is fully trained in the use of lasers for other skin problems such as removal of fine lines/wrinkles, birthmarks, age/sun spots, moles, thread veins, excess hair and tattoos.

During the week, the shops in Ilminster have been invited to take part in a decorated window competition with the theme of carnival. All participating shops have been given an Ilminster carnival logo card to display in their window to show they are taking part. Judging will take place during the week and the results announced in the market square after 10.30pm on carnival night along with the results from the main carnival procession.

QUIZ NIGHT AT THE SHRUBBERY

On Wednesday 28th September the Ilminster Rotary Club are organising a Quiz night at the Shrubbery for carnival week. 7.00pm for 7.30pm start. We are looking for teams of 4 - £6 per team. Everyone welcome.

Herberts Funfair will be located on the recreation ground from Wednesday 28th September through to Saturday 1st October.

CARNIVAL NIGHT MAIN PROCESSION - SATURDAY 1ST OCTOBER STARTING AT 7.15PM

The Carnival Committee would like to remind motorists that any parked cars along the route of the carnival should be removed by 6.00pm at the latest.

Ahead of the main procession The Meridian Corp of Drums will be marching and playing through the town to set the atmosphere.

The procession will make its way down East Street into the Market Square and then up through Silver Street before moving onto the main road through Ilminster and down Station Road past the Shrubbery Hotel before reaching the dispersal area from the roundabout by the Texaco garage out towards Hort Bridge.

Motorists should be aware that the Bay Hill Road will be closed from 2.30pm, while other roads on the Carnival route will be closed to traffic from 6.30pm.

OFFICIAL CARNIVAL MERCHANDISE

With costs of around £6K required to enable carnival to take place in the town, and the collection for the last few years has been reducing to just over £3K last year, it is obvious this situation cannot continue.

The other towns in the South Somerset Federation of Carnivals also face the same difficulties and have come up with a plan which, with the support of the local community, could raise the extra funds needed to secure the future of Carnival in Wellington, Taunton, Ilminster and Chard.

We estimate that around £10,000 is lost at each town to the carnival purse by people purchasing carnival merchandise (LED toys and balloons) from pedlars from as far afield as the Midlands who descend on our towns to sell these items and exploit the atmosphere we create. Most people will be surprised to learn that not a single penny of this comes back into carnival (and ultimately, therefore, to reach local groups and charities). The South Somerset Federation of Carnivals has joined together to purchase and sell better quality carnival merchandise at a cheaper price."

All we ask is that anyone wanting to purchase traditional carnival merchandise (LED swords, toys, hats and balloons) does so only from official Federation suppliers. There will be a range of merchandise on offer.

Merchandise will be available to purchase from a stall in the Market Square in Ilminster on carnival night. There will also be a City Plumbing van with authorised sellers selling merchandise ahead of the main procession in Ilminster. If people only buy from people wearing official tabards and signs, we can not only help to secure the future of carnival in the town, we can also make more significant donations to local groups and charities. Please remember, Ilminster Carnival is a not for profit organisation; all of our committee members are volunteers (as are the marshals that assist us from other towns), and every penny raised after the deduction of running costs gets donated to deserving local groups and charities. Let's work together to keep this money in our town.

Colyford Goose Fayre

Saturday 24th September 2016

Get Medieval at the 37th Colyford Goose Fayre

ON September 24th the 37th Colyford Goose Fayre will be taking place.

The Fayre was revived in its current form 37 years ago, but was known to have existed in medieval times, which is the main theme of the afternoon. Everybody is encouraged to dress the part.

For one day every year our village steps back to medieval times and hundreds of people travel miles to come and see the event.

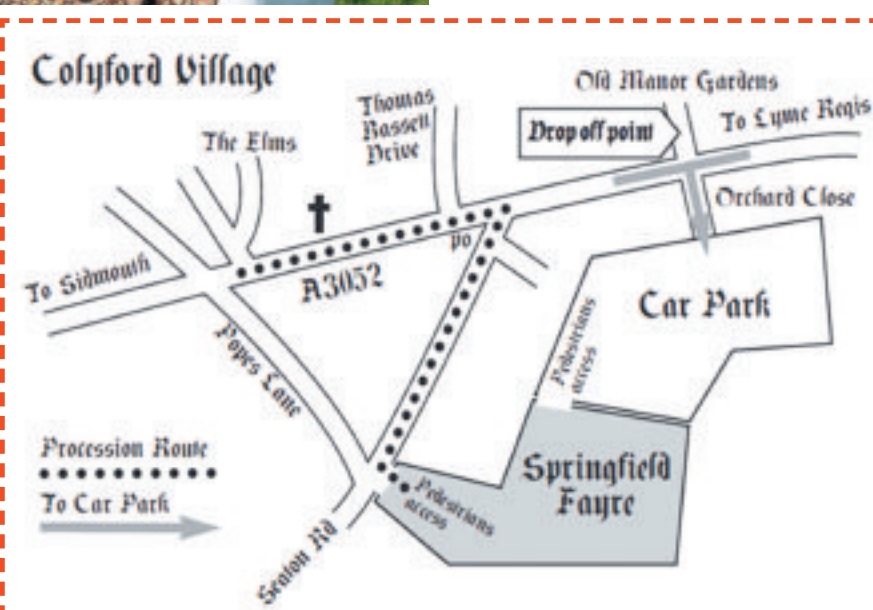

Any profits from the fayre are used for the village and some local organisations also benefit. From the outset it was decided that the aim of holding the fayre was not to make unwarranted profit but to hope to gain enough to stage another fayre in the following year, for the benefit of all the local people.

The event organisers expect to sell 2,500 programmes at £3 each year with children going free and with free parking.

The event starts at 2.00pm with a procession of locals in medieval costume; followed by a programme of dancing, music, medieval crafts, stalls, the now renowned Mummers play and a ram roast all contribute to the atmosphere. The inevitable beer and tea tents make for a family afternoon out.

Last year Colyford Goose Fayre raised over £12,000, which is distributed to local organisations and charities.

Music helps the brain!

SINCE it formed in 2007 Lyme Regis-based music charity B Sharp has seen thousands of lives transformed by the power of playing music.

The link between music and improving the mind is well established and through its weekly groups and other regular events hosted by music leaders who are experienced composers, musicians, singer-songwriter and technicians, B Sharp provides continuous training to nurture young talent within the community.

The broad programme of music making includes large-scale community festivals, high profile regional performances and bespoke commissions as well as the weekly term-time music making programmes for musicians and singers from the age of eight, plus a training scheme for young and emerging leaders.

"Wherever you are, there's always a pathway to further your ability with B Sharp. This kind of training is a rare thing," says current music leader and former trainee Matt Hartnell.

Playing music has been shown to improve brain function, boost mental health, promote learning and increase memory. That has led to a generation of young people being able to build social confidence and skills to transfer into school, future training and employment. Many of those who take part in B Sharp have gone on to become professional musicians, music leaders and to work in other creative industries, inspiring others to follow suit.

"Through our unique traineeship and apprenticeship programmes that provide opportunities for young people to work alongside more experienced professionals we are able to grow our own future music leaders," says B Sharp CEO Fran Williams. "Our leadership training and professional development helps ensure that all young people are welcomed and supported to progress musically and socially within our programmes and work with partners to offer that training across the region."

B Sharp is now recruiting new members aged 8 to 19 to sign up to its weekly music making projects and welcome enquiries from prospective trainees, emerging and professional music leaders.

For more information visit www.bsharp.uk.com, email bsharp@bsharp.uk.com or call Fran Williams on 07968 177663.

A Night of Orbison

ROY ORBISON was one of the most successful singer-songwriters of his era recording such iconic hits as 'Only The Lonely', 'Oh, Pretty Woman', 'Running Scared', 'In Dreams', 'Penny Arcade', 'Claudette', 'Mean Woman Blues', 'Dream Baby' and 'Crying'.

A Night of Orbison

reminds us all of these wonderful hits plus many, many more as West End star and native New Yorker Lars Young (Be Bop A Lula, Rock n Roll Paradise, Hello I'm Johnny Cash) becomes the legend.

With support from his fabulous band and very special guest vocalist and television star Wendy Abrahams, this is a concert event that will have audiences mesmerised, thrilled and singing along!

A Night of Orbison will be performed at The Manor Pavilion, Sidmouth on Friday, September 30th. For more details and to book call Box Office: 01395 514413.

Talented Axminster Drama Club cast getting ready for black comedy

SOME of Axminster's finest female actors are appearing in an Axminster Drama Club production of 'A Better You' on September 29th and 30th and October 1st at the Guildhall.

The play tells the story of what happens when five very different women - from the neurotic to the shameless to the domineering - who meet every week at the local community hall turn up one evening to find out, unexpectedly, that they're to be given a presentation on the 'A Better You' self-empowerment program.

Needless to say, the evening doesn't go quite as smoothly as it might. What do you do with the body of a comatose self-help presenter, whom you have inadvertently over-medicated, when you discover that the hall has been double-booked and a pair of ballroom dancers turn up to rehearse their Cha Cha?

This is a seriously funny black comedy. Tickets available from Archway Bookshop on Church Street. Telephone: 01297 33595 (after hours: 01404 831089).

Barcelona-born baritone Josep-Ramon Olive to perform in Ilminster

"EXPRESSIVE", "noble" and "fearsome" are just a few of the many accolades earned by young Barcelona-born baritone Josep-Ramon Olive for his outstanding vocal performances. Bachtrack has described his Tarquinius role in Britten's The Rape of Lucretia, as: "...he conveys the arrogance and bitterness of Tarquinius very successfully, his natural stage presence an asset."

Josep-Ramon is widely acknowledged as a finely rounded musical individual who in addition to vocal and choral training has studied piano and cello at the very highest level with leading names such as Richard Levitt, Graham Johnson, David Gowland and Eric Halfvarson.

He collaborates regularly with different national and international orchestras including the London Handel Orchestra and the Cambridge Philharmonic, and has worked under the baton of great conductors such as Laurence Cummings, Jordi Savall, Johan Duijck and Timothy Redmond.

Josep-Ramon will be accompanied by Ricardo Gosalbo, a Spanish-French collaborative pianist who is a Junior Fellow in piano accompaniment at Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance and a Spanish vocal music coach at Guildhall School of Music and Drama, where he has also held a fellowship. Ricardo has won numerous prizes including the 'Prix de Lied' at the Concours International de chant-piano Nadia et Lili Boulanger, the Guildhall Piano Accompaniment Prize, the Oxford Lieder Young Artist Platform and the Paul Hamburger Prize for voice and piano duo.

Josep-Ramon Olive performs at Bridport Arts Centre, South Street from 11am-12noon on Friday, October 7th. Tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or from www.bridport-arts.com. Josep-Ramon will then play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, October 7th at 8pm. Tickets are £15 (pre-show supper £13 but must be pre-booked) available by calling 01460 55783 or from www.the-meetinghouse.org.uk

The rhythm of Africa comes to East Devon

A CELEBRATE AFRICA evening of pop-rock-gospel and African songs, drums and traditional African dancers Shosholozza in aid of a School in Zambia, will take place in Seaton.

Local Musicians Lorrain de Peyer and David Norrish join forces to put on a concert for a school in the bush in Africa where they both taught in the 1970's.

When Lorrain and David both attended a re-union in London in 2013 for the girls school Njase in Zambia, Africa where they had both been teachers, they were surprised to find that they were now living as neighbours, Lorrain living in Seaton and David living in Sidmouth.

Even more of a coincidence is that one of David's many responsibilities when he taught at Njase all those years ago was to run the School Choir and that Lorrain now runs two local choirs in East Devon and Taunton.

At the school in Africa David encouraged the choir to sing the songs that come from their own languages, Tonga and Lesotho that is spoken in the surroundings areas to the school. He recorded a CD of the girls singing these songs which will be for sale at the concert. Back in the 1970's this was no mean feat as recording equipment was scarce especially in Africa

At that time Lorrain was only nineteen years old and she taught the girls English, Games and Art at the school. She had no idea that she would later take up music as her career and become a choir leader.

At the re-union in London for the school where Lorrain and David met up with each other they also connected with some of the X Njase students who now live in the UK. They heard how the school was in a sad state of repair and on the decline needing money for even basic things like furniture and that the X Njase School girls (now women) were setting up a charity to support the school.

So the idea to use the leverage of choirs to put on a concert for the school was born and Lorrain asked David Norrish if he would come and teach her choirs some of the Zambian songs that the girls used to sing in his choir at Njase which you can hear at the concert. The enthusiasm for the concert has since expanded to include special guest performances from some other local choirs - The Seaton Chorus; The Rhythm of Life Choirs; a local drumming drop called Drum4Fun and a very special performance from the unique and original professional dancers from Zimbabwe called Shosholozza.

We trust you can come along and join us dancing in the isles to the drums and singing along to the songs and the sound of Africa at this very special concert. For details of Lorrain's musical team building sessions for groups and organisations please call 01297 792874 info@thecouragetosing.co.uk, www.thecouragetosing.co.uk

Film fun for all at The Beehive

A SELECTION of thrilling films will be shown at The Beehive over the next two weeks, beginning with a nostalgic cinema showing of 'High Society' on Friday, September 23rd at 2pm. The effervescent musical reinvention of Philip Barry's play The Philadelphia Story features an endlessly delightful Cole Porter score.

Among High Society's high points: Sinatra and Celeste Holm ask 'Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?'; Bing Crosby and Grace Kelly share 'True Love', Bing and Ol' Blue Eyes sing 'Well, Did You Evah?' and Crosby and Louis 'Satchmo'; Armstrong jive with 'Now You Has Jazz'. This is a Dementia friendly film open to all and followed by free tea and biscuits in the Beehive café bar.

Also on September 23rd at 7.30pm the magnificent Brian Cox stars as a frustrated and gloriously grumpy, ageing, acting legend in 'The Carer', driving his daughter, played by Emilia Fox, around the bend!

On September 30th 'Nerve' stars Emma Roberts and James Franco. Nerve doesn't fail to give the comedic, thrilling, edge-of-your-seat entertainment that moviegoers crave on a night out. The chemistry between Franco and Roberts, the intense visuals, and memorable soundtrack readily draws watchers into the movie.

The family film we have all been waiting for, starring the marvellous Mark Rylance as Roald Dahl's 'BFG' is coming to the Beehive cinema for two showings on Saturday, October 1st at 3pm and 7pm.

■ DON'T miss top comedy at the Beehive this Saturday, September 24th from Rose Johnson, Beattie Edmondson and Camille Ucan in their new show Birthday Girls - see the advert below for more details.

SOUTH WEST PROPERTY TO SHOWCASE IN LONDON EXHIBITION

PROPERTY for sale with the 80 offices of the Experts in Property across Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Somerset and Bristol will be showcased at an exhibition in London next month.

the Experts in Property Autumn Exhibition will take place at the prestigious and very busy High Street offices of leading Hammersmith and Fulham estate agency, Lawsons & Daughters, on Thursday 6th October. The exhibition starts at 2pm and will run till 7pm for the convenience of those unable to attend during the working day.

Lawsons & Daughters has given over its impressive front office showroom and dedicated the whole of its window display to the exhibition, which is also being promoted in various national and regional property publications as well as Metro, the Evening Standard and through social media.

Taking Westcountry properties directly to buyers in the capital and surrounds, the network holds regular events in London, the top location of people searching for property in the region. Its last event was a huge success with visitors looking for a diverse mix of property to move into and as investments as well as boltholes and holiday homes.

Local property experts from some of the 80 offices will be travelling to London to attend the exhibition, to answer questions about our beautiful region and show details of specific properties to potential buyers.

Edition 18 of Distinctly Westcountry, the net-work's glossy magazine and home of distinctive property in the region, will be published to coincide with the exhibition. Copies will be available at the event and afterwards at Lawsons & Daughters as well as offices of the Experts in Property throughout the five counties.

Steve Moir, chairman of the Experts in Property, said: "We are pleased to once again work in conjunction with Lawsons & Daughters. The location of their office is fantastic, very accessible and easy to find, just a short walk from Fulham Broadway Underground Station and in one of London's most popular residential areas close to Knightsbridge and Chelsea."

Brian Corson, director of Lawsons & Daughters, said: "There is an upward trend of Londoners moving away from the hustle and bustle and the Westcountry is a popular destination, particularly for retirees, young families and those who work from home. We're very pleased to once again host the exhibition."

To have your property taken directly to affluent buyers in London, speak to your local office of the Experts in Property. As an added bonus, the network is currently running an Autumn Giveaway with a top prize of £2,500 to spend in John Lewis – home owners who have their local office conduct a free, no obligation sales or rental valuation on their property are eligible to enter. To find your nearest office, look for the logo or find the Agent's Directory at www.theexpertsin-property.co.uk.

SEAT unveils Mii by Cosmopolitan at #FashFest in London

THE cars we drive are a reflection of our personalities, a carefully chosen investment that not only gets us from place to place, but defines who we are. For consumers looking for performance and fun, last night at Cosmo's glitzy #FashFest, SEAT and Cosmopolitan launched the SEAT Mii by COSMOPOLITAN. The culmination of an 18-month co-creation process between SEAT and Cosmopolitan's global creative team, regional editors and readers across the UK and Europe, the latest member of the Mii city car family is the perfect car for confident, independent, active young women who are really going places.

"This is a car that adapts to today's lifestyle by providing amazing solutions that are both intuitive and easy to use. The SEAT Mii by COSMOPOLITAN is dynamic, stylish and versatile, with a daring, edgy appeal. Not only did we strive to create an elegant car, it is designed to be a bold, personal ally for the driver, with amazing solutions that are functional and intuitive," SEAT's global marketing director, Susanne Franz said.

Designed with the tastes and preferences of Cosmopolitan's audience in mind, the Mii by COSMOPOLITAN is agile, exciting to drive and easy to park; an aesthetically pleasing car with personality. Cosmopolitan's readers participated in the process, sharing thoughts and opinions through surveys and product testing, offering feedback and ideas.

Kim St. Clair Bodden, senior vice president and editorial director of Hearst Magazines International, explains, "Cosmopolitan is the biggest, most powerful young women's brand in the world, engaging and inspiring our readers to achieve the fun, fearless lives they want. It has been incredibly rewarding to work with SEAT, our global editors and readers to design a car with all the bells and whistles that really personalise the driving experience."

Cosmopolitan is supporting the launch with a social media campaign around the hashtag #ThisIsMii, with engaging content based on reader opinions and experiences, creating a conversation around the car, fashion, lifestyle, beauty and work, putting the SEAT Mii by COSMOPOLITAN in context with readers' lives. From the social posts, readers can click through to the SEAT website for more detailed information on the Mii by COSMOPOLITAN. Following its debut at Cosmo #FashFest, the Mii by COSMOPOLITAN will be showcased at the Paris Motor Show at the end of this month.

Light and Shade, the Magic of Colour

Small on the outside, yet big on the inside, the Mii by COSMOPOLITAN is versatile, safe, economical, comfortable, reliable and kind to the environment. It's also sophisticated, feminine and chic, with a design that reflects a bold, audacious, lifestyle.

The Mii by COSMOPOLITAN is available in two colours; Violetto and Candy White, with champagne-toned bismuth details inside and out. Candy White is a smooth tone, while Violetto has an elegant, pearlescent finish, achieved by carefully choosing colour pigments, revealing the 'flip,' or light, and the 'flop,' or dark, tones. Even its headlights have an 'eyeliner' shape, emphasised in the same way as make-up emphasises the eye. The jewelled, bi-colour alloy wheels works in harmony, offering a surprise sparkle.

The champagne-finish of the door mirrors is reflected in the interior details as well, on the air-vents, the infotainment system surrounds and in the stitching of the car, including the floor mats. Violet seats are upholstered in Alcantara, high-end, top-quality upholstery; while the ceiling is upholstered in dark tones, providing a sense of glamour. Aluminium strips in the front footwells are encribed with "COSMOPOLITANlovesMii." The interior chrome details are matte, with the exception of the SEAT logo found on the steering wheel.

As Much Mii as Any Other Mii

Always innovating, SEAT is at the forefront of the growing trend towards collaborations between the car industry and partners in other sectors, first with women's fashion and accessories retailer Mango, and now with Cosmopolitan.

The SEAT Mii by COSMOPOLITAN launches in the UK in early 2017 with the 1.0 75 PS engine and five-speed manual transmission. The frugal engine emits 102 g/km of CO₂, with fuel economy of 64.2 mpg on the combined cycle.

The Mii by COSMOPOLITAN has all the elements necessary to ensure a safe and comfortable drive, from air-conditioning to "Hill Hold Control" (to prevent roll-back), as well as a list of optional extras that allows the driver to configure a Mii with rear parking sensors and a 300-watt sound system and subwoofer. And for staying connected, the new infotainment system "Smartphone integration with Drive Mii app" has a smartphone cradle integrated into the dashboard. To amplify the driving experience, the SEAT Mii by COSMOPOLITAN app, "DriveMii" (available in Play Store or App Store for Android and iOS devices) enables the driver to control the infotainment system through a smartphone.

The Mii by COSMOPOLITAN is a car built for and co-created by women who want the time they spend behind the wheel to be as engaging and exciting as every other facet of their busy, fun, fearless lives.

Volvo cars reveals its adventurous side with new V90 Cross Country

VOLVO Cars, the premium car maker, has unveiled the eagerly awaited V90 Cross Country, completing its 90 series line-up.

Since the introduction of the first Cross Country almost 20 years ago, Volvo Cars has become synonymous with the rugged all-road, all-weather product category, with a growing stable of Cross Country models.

Volvo Cars' Cross Country models fulfil an increasingly important part of the Swedish brand's product portfolio as luxury car buyers seek out a more experienced-based lifestyle that occasionally takes them off the beaten track.

"The V90 Cross Country takes the elegance of the V90 and transforms it into an all-road car that delivers safety, comfort and performance in a capable and adventurous package," said Håkan Samuelsson, President & CEO, Volvo Car Group.

With some of the harshest winters on the planet and more than 77 per cent of the country covered in forest and lakes, Sweden is the natural place to develop and test extreme durability and all-weather-capable cars. This hard-won expertise represents a large part of Volvo Cars' heritage, reflected in the company's Cross Country model line-up.

"Our cars are well known for their safety, strength and durability. With All-Wheel Drive, increased ride height and a chassis optimised for comfort and control in all weather and road conditions, the new V90 Cross Country takes our versatile V90 estate and adds the heart of an explorer," said Dr Peter Mertens, Senior Vice President Research & Development at Volvo Cars.

With Volvo Cars' Scalable Product Architecture providing the underpinnings, the V90 Cross Country has undergone rigorous testing to ensure that it can survive the extremes in which it will ultimately find itself.

From secret testing facilities in the frozen north of Sweden, where temperatures regularly hit -40 degrees centigrade, to the searing desert heat of Arizona, where Volvo Cars performs its high-temperature testing program, the V90 Cross Country has been built to last.

With a design that clearly stands out from the crowd, the V90 Cross Country's rugged character belies a sumptuous interior that delivers a level of luxury uncommon in the segment, combining all the benefits of the connectivity and entertainment features that were launched with the new S90 and V90, including a high-end sound system by Bowers & Wilkins.

The V90 Cross Country's exterior design cues communicate the powerful and dynamic capability that the car exemplifies, while offering the flexibility to choose from both rugged and elegant expressions.

"Designing a Volvo Cross Country is not a styling exercise, a plastic job. It is based on honest capability. The Volvo V90 Cross Country brings a surprising and intriguing combination of a strong, powerful exterior and a luxurious, Scandinavian interior. It will continue the genuine tradition of the Volvo Cross Country with a new recipe: the blend of powerful off-road capability in a most elegant, sophisticated, tailored wagon suit," said Thomas Ingenlath, Senior Vice President Design at Volvo Cars.

The new V90 Cross Country takes this well-established segment to a new level of comfort-inspired capability. Production of the car is set to start this autumn at Volvo Cars' Torslanda plant in Sweden.

UK prices will be announced later this year, and first deliveries are expected in Q1 2017.

The new Mercedes-AMG GT Roadster and Mercedes-AMG GT C Roadster: Open-top driving performance as a twin pack

MERCEDES-AMG is blowing even more fresh air into the AMG GT family. Shortly after the world premiere of the AMG GT R, the sports car and performance brand from Affalterbach is presenting two exciting roadster variants of the two-seater sports car. Alongside the AMG GT Roadster, the AMG GT C Roadster enhances the portfolio with a completely new model variant. With an output of 410 kW (557 hp) and peak torque of 680 Nm, the AMG GT C is the most powerful new Roadster variant and uses some of the technical refinements of the AMG GT R. These include active rear axle steering and the electronically controlled rear axle locking differential. In combination with the AMG RIDE CONTROL sport suspension, the AMG GT C Roadster guarantees dynamic performance at the very highest level. The top Roadster also takes its lead from the top AMG GT R sports car where muscular proportions are concerned: the wider rear wings create space for a wider track and wider wheels at the rear axle, allowing even higher cornering speeds and excellent traction. The variable performance exhaust system also ensures an authentic V8 sound from the AMG Roadster.

The new Roadsters make hall-mark AMG driving performance an even more intensive experience. "With our two Roadster models, we are strategically expanding the AMG GT family by two exciting variants. With the AMG GT C Roadster, we are also introducing a new model variant to which we have transferred main performance-related components from our top sports car, the AMG GT R. The result: a highly dynamic driving experience in a very exclusive ambience, coupled with that pure roadster feeling," says Tobias Moers, Chairman of Mercedes-AMG GmbH.

With the two Roadster variants the Mercedes-AMG GT family has now increased to five members. The two new sports cars with fabric soft tops likewise have the technical genes for which AMG is famous. These include e.g. the lightweight and torsionally rigid aluminium bodysell plus powerful and efficient V8 biturbo engines. The entry level into the Roadster world is the AMG GT with an output of 350 kW (476 hp). The AMG GT C Roadster adds a completely new output level. With 410 kW (557 hp) it is the more powerful of the two new open-top sports cars.

The AMG GT C Roadster not only delivers more output and torque, it also impresses with numerous technical highlights from the Mercedes-AMG GT R for even more dynamic performance. Like the AMG GT R, the AMG GT C Roadster is recognisable by its wide, muscular rear end and large wheels. Other technical measures include the wider rear track and active rear axle steering.

The AMG GT C Roadster is also equipped with a lithium-ion battery, and has more exclusive appointments. Standard features include a nappa leather interior, the AMG performance steering wheel in nappa leather / DINAMICA microfibre and the additional transmission mode RACE.

Walter Parsons League Cup

AXMINSTER TOWN 0
EXMOUTH TOWN 1
AXMINSTER endured a tough afternoon against Premier League Exmouth Town in the 1st Round of the Walter Parsons League Cup.

The game started slowly with very little in the way of goal-mouth action. Both teams were lacklustre with defences on top. The second half started in much the same way but Exmouth played with more drive and commitment and controlled the bulk of the half.

The visitors forced a series of corners and the deadlock was finally broken on the hour when a quick counter attack was headed away by Mark Scott but fell straight to Aaron Denny who volleyed an excellent long range shot to leave Ax keeper Scott Wells-Burr stranded.

Axminster brought on substitute Oscar Latas to add more energy to the attack but the Exmouth defence coped comfortably and goalkeeper Chris Wright had little to do.

Axminster: Scott Well-Burr, Craig Every, Ben Clay, Mark Scott, Elliot Dyer, Liam Cleal, Nathan Warren, Callum Garrett, Danny Clay, Ben Vine, Jonny Hurford. Subs: Oscar Latas, Mark Smale.

SIDMOUTH TOWN 2 CREDITON UTD 3

SIDMOUTH were keen to put in an improved performance against a side that had hammered them 6-0 two weeks earlier in a league encounter. The Vikings were forced into changes as the impressive James Clampin was injured and Jamie Newbery and Jamie Orchard were on County representative duty.

It took 25 minutes for the deadlock to be broken when a crossshot looped past Sidmouth keeper Dan Stapleton.

Sidmouth dusted themselves down and were soon level through Dan Norman.

After the break both teams opened up which provided a lot of end-to-end action which made for an entertaining cup-tie.

On the hour 'The Kirton' got their noses in front when Sidmouth's Tyler Wellman got his feet in a muddle and placed the ball past his own keeper.

Sidmouth immediately went on the front foot and drew level in the 68th minute. Norman, with his back to goal, spun and hit a half volley past the diving Tonkin in the visiting goal.

Sidmouth now looked likely to go on clinch win and Ben Burrows was left unmarked at the far post but inexplicably placed his shot over the bar.

Crediton took full advantage of the miss and two minutes later scored the winner. MoM Dan Evans went close to snatching a late equaliser with a rasping shot that smashed against the post and out to safety.

Sidmouth: Stapleton, Badcott, Pointing, Jones, Wellman, Davies (Capt), Antat, Evans, Binion, Norman, Swingle, Used Subs: Harwood, Burrows, Dobinson. Unused: Bowditch, White.

Axminster and Sidmouth both return to SW Peninsula League Division One action on Saturday. Ax travel to Liverton United while Sidmouth entertain Bovey Tracey (both 3pm ko).

Devon & Exeter League match reports

MILLWEY RISE 4 K&M POLONIA 3

Devon Intermediate Cup R1
THIS was nearly a re-run of last season's cup meeting when Millwey squeezed through 5-4 against the same opposition.

It was Levi Hoole who opened the scoring when he latched on to a through ball and beat the keeper with a well-struck shot.

This encouraged Millwey and Tyler Warren tapped home from a Matty Lewis pass to increase their lead after 20 minutes.

The visitors pulled a goal back from a goalmouth scramble, however a goal of the season contender from Nick Land – a terrific volley from 25-yards – restored the hosts' two-goal cushion at the break.

Five minutes after the restart Sam Turner rounded the visitors' keeper to score from a Warren assist.

But Millwey then put themselves under self imposed pressure with some lackadaisical passing and midway through the half Polonia reduced the lead after more indecisive play by the defence.

This was further exacerbated by an error from keeper Nathan Hoole that gifted the visitors their third goal and set up a nail biting finish. However, Rise limped home 4-3 to edge into the next round.

CENTRAL RES 1 MILLWEY RISE RES 6

D&E Division 9
FOLLOWING hot on the heels of last week's five-goal victory against Honiton, Millwey Reserves went one better on Saturday and scored six.

Goals from Mark Pike and MoM Jack Bennett gave them a 2-0 lead at half time. In the second period further goals from Pike, Dave Bridges, Stuart King and Tim Phillips saw Rise romp home in style.

D&E round-up with Collin Goodwin

PREMIER leaders NEWTOWN preserved their 100 per cent record with a 3-0 victory against newly-promoted EXMOUTH AMATEURS with goals from Ben Howard, Corey O'Donoghue and Jake Hobbs.

ELMORE also won 3-0 against UPOTTERY, with Matt Harvey, Will Pinnick and Matt Pengelly finding the net.

SEATON TOWN were too sharp for FENITON winning 3-0 at Colyford Road with goals from Jacob Rowe, Matt Hancock and Ritchie Durrant.

Both matches played in Division Two were 1-1 draws – DAWLISH, at home to WOODBURY, and the UNIVERSITY at home to BUDLEIGH SALTERTON. Nathan Hopkins was the College scorer, Rafael Castillejos replying for the Robins.

After two opening wins and 19 goals, new boys PERRY STREET had to settle for a 2-2 draw in their Division Three duel against AXMINSTER TOWN. Daniels and Turner had the Tigers' goals.

In Division Four, OTTERY ST MARY won 2-1 at home to the UNIVERSITY, with James Gosney and Connor Lovering scoring.

LYME REGIS RESERVES beat HALWILL 2-1 with strikes from Alex Rowe and Ryan Fifer in the only Division Six match played, and there were home wins for WELLINGTON and NEWTON POPPLEFORD in the only matches played in Divisions Seven and Eight.

TEDBURN ST MARY were the pick of the day in the Devon Senior Cup after their 1-0 victory over CULLOMPTON RANGERS.

SIDMOUTH TOWN proved too good for HALWILL and won 4-2.

In round one of the Devon Intermediate cup COLYTON cruised through with goals from Nathan Maddocks (2), Calum Somers, Matt Williams, George Richards and Marc Potter in a 6-0 win over Torrisedge Reserves at the Peace Memorial Ground.

Elsewhere, goals from Karl Allen, Jamie Beck and Ryan Pike couldn't save Honiott Town 3rds from a 4-3 home defeat at the hands of Bideford Community.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

HAWKCHURCH Utd progressed to the second round of the Devon Intermediate Cup courtesy of goals from James Melville (2) and Gavin Herrod in a 3-1 win over Awliscombe.

Herrod's 15th minute drive was too hot for the Awls' keeper to hold and the Hawks were underway.

Herrod then turned provider with a pass across the six-yard box that found Melville who tapped in.

Five minutes later it was 3-0 with Jack Larcombe this time picking out Melville who rounded the keeper and rolled the ball into the empty net.

Awliscombe pulled one back in the second half but it counted for little. Hawks' manager Martin Bright said: "Dan Richards was once again in outstanding form although Melville used all of his experience and now has six goals in his first three games for us."

Not such good news from Farway United. The first team crashed out of the Intermediate cup, beaten 3-1 at Roseland Reserves with Fabio Souza bagging the consolation, while Farway Utd Res failed to raise a team for the scheduled PSDL Division Three visit of Drimpton Res.

Youth reports

OTTERY St Mary under 11s continued their winning ways with a convincing 6-1 win at Lymstone. Fifteen minutes into the first half an Ash Whitcombe own goal gave Lymstone the lead.

But a quick response from Ben Briar bought the visitors level and a second from Sam Gleeson saw them go into half time 2-1 up.

In the second half goals from Shaw Browning, Jack Carpenter and a cracking brace from Freddie Clarke rounded off the win.

Early basement battle ahead

Bideford 26 Chard 13

South West One

CHARD'S difficult start to the season continued at Bideford on Saturday when the home side scored three converted tries in the first half.

Jon Humphrey kicked two penalties but, with Bideford also adding a penalty, Chard trailed by 21-6 at half time.

An unconverted try gave Bideford an additional bonus point but Chard finished well with a try from Bryn Mays and, although Humphries added the conversion points, it was too little too late for Chard who are yet to get off the mark.

Next Saturday the team welcome fellow strugglers Kingsbridge (3pm ko).

Next Saturday is also the Vice presidents lunch and anyone intending to come should confirm with Rob Gilbert (07989 927797) as soon as possible

Wellington Colts 12

Chard Colts 24

CHARD played away under lights at Wellington last Thursday.

They scored the first try but a converted effort by the home side late in the half gave them a 7-5 advantage at the break.

Chard started really well in the second half and the scored after good work by Barnaby Down, but a poor restart resulted in Wellington re-gaining the lead.

But Chard were not to be outdone and they deservedly won the game with two more tries both of which were converted.

Try scorers for Chard were Joe Mainwaring, Alex Hill (2), and Ben Lock.

With Down adding two conversions.
